	08.4.2004 Shri Alok Sur counsel for the petitioner. State by Akhil Agrawal, , P.L. on advance copy. Application for urgent hearing is allowed. I.A.No.847/2004 from exemption from filing typed copy is allowed. Heard. Petitioner was working as Ayurved Vaidya. He retired in the year 1994. The grievance of the petitioner is that the respondents are not granting the actual pension, to which he is entitled and he is being given less amount of pension and benefits. He submitted that several representations have been made to the concerned authorities but they have not been decided. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. C.C.as per rules.
